

Ms. Amanda Freeman, Chair
St. Luke's Episcopal Church

"Working with Cornerstone Montgomery is important to me as a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church that was part of Cornerstone Montgomery's founding. I want to support the needs for behavioral health in Montgomery County and help St. Luke's be a good neighbor for the Southport Hub."

Ms. Freeman is a D.C. native and a retired high school history teacher. She is an active member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, one of the founding members of Cornerstone Montgomery. Coming from a family that has struggled with mental health challenges and substance use disorders, Amanda is excited to support Cornerstone Montgomery's mission. Amanda is actively engaged in anti-racism work. Her other interests include spending time with family and friends, reading and being active outdoors.
