

Dan Helhowski

Dan Helhowski is a partner at Beltway Merchant Services, a local leader in credit card payment processing, website design and business services. He has been working in financial services since 2008, previously serving as a Branch Manager and Regional Account Manager in large national banks, as well as a Commercial Banker in a regional bank.

With a wealth of experience, he has become a driving force in the industry, leveraging his expertise to provide innovative and tailored solutions for businesses as a high level local vendor. Dan is known for his strategic approach, helping clients navigate the complex landscape of business payment processing and website payment integration. He helps his retail and restaurant clients to operate with the newest point of sale technology as well as his specialty, ecommerce, software, and invoicing platforms. His commitment to customer satisfaction and transparent business practices has earned him a reputation as a trusted advisor in the financial services sector. Beyond his professional pursuits, he actively shapes the future of the local business community, contributing as a Board Member of the Greater Rockville Chamber and participating in numerous chambers of commerce and nonprofits.
